Elected Officials, Boards and Commissions

updated 2018

LPEA UPDATE: <http://lpea.com>

LPEA, provides to its more than 30,000 members, with in excess of 42,000 meters, safe, reliable electricity at the lowest reasonable cost, while being environmentally responsible. LPEA is a private, independent electric utilities owned by and operated for the benefit of the members they serve. Everyone who pays their electric bill to LPEA is eligible to be a member of the cooperative, and as such has the right to both vote for the directors who represent them on the board, and run for a seat on that board.

In addition to monthly Board meetings (typically the third Wednesday of every month), the Board members serve on local, state and industry boards, plus keep current on statewide and national energy policy issues.

Mike Dreyspring, LPEA CEO may be contacted at 970.382.3509 or mdreyspring@lpea.coop
