- Two seats are open for the April 4th election. Barbara Noseworthy and Kim Baxter will not run for reelection.
- The following people have turned in nominating petitions:
 - David Woodruff, president of the Durango Chapter of the Colorado Restaurant Association
 - Harrison Wendt, youth programming coordinator at the Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Durango
 - Carter Rogers, Fort Lewis College Student Body President
 - Douglas Snow, Durango resident
 - Gilda Yazzie, Durango resident
- Durango Chamber of Commerce will hold a candidate forum March 14 at the Doubletree at 11:30 am.

Chapter 90 (Oil and Gas Regulations) of the La Plata County Land Use Code Update

- La Plata County Commissioners accepted the staff recommendation to keep oil and gas setbacks at 2000 feet but allow certain circumstances (“off ramps”) that could bring setbacks to a minimum of 500 feet.
- Based on the direction provided by the Board of County Commissioners, an updated draft of the Chapter 90 oil and gas regulations (Click here to see the draft) will now go to the county Planning Commission for their review and recommendation.
- Public comment will be taken on February 23rd at 6pm at the County Administration Building.
- Version 2 of the draft will be considered later this month.
- It is estimated that by early April, Chapter 90 will be adopted.

Durango Emergency Services Building

- A combined fire and police station at the current River City Hall site in Durango has been determined to not be feasible as a joint project, but the fire district is still investigating the site for a new fire station while the city is considering the former 9R administration property as a new location for a potential City Hall complex.
- City councilors have directed staff to investigate the fair-market value of a potential swap between the city and the Durango Fire Protection District of River City Hall and the former 9R administration property.
- The next joint meeting with the DFPD board is in March.
